

CONTENTS

CHAPTER BY CHAPTER

Part One: Your Ministry

You have been given the greatest ministry in all the world, that of ministering to people and reconciling them to the Lord and Majesty of the universe, God Himself. For this reason, you must understand and be fully committed to the great ministry He has given you.

1. What Your Call as a Minister Is	1
2. What Your Aim as a Minister Must Be	13
3. What Your Purpose as a Minister Is	29
4. What Your Resources as a Minister Are	47
5. What Your Commission and Work as a Minister Are	63
6. What Your Message—Your Preaching and Teaching—Must Be	109
A. You and Your Message	111
B. You and Your Preaching and Teaching	138
7. What Your Duty as a Minister Toward False Teaching Must Be	163
A. You and False Teachers or Heretics	165
B. You and Other Gospels	196
C. You and False Doctrine and Teaching	213

Part Two: Your Personal Life and Day by Day Walk

God's Word tells you how to live and walk in Christ day by day. Consistency, obedience, faithfulness—this is what God is after. Following Him—doing exactly as He says—bears the most fulfilling and fruitful life and ministry imaginable. For this reason, you must be diligent in living and walking exactly as God says. Again, God's Word stresses that consistency, obedience, and faithfulness must be the hallmarks of your life.

8. What Your Daily Walk as a Minister Must Be	231
A. You and Christ	233
B. You and Scripture	247
C. You and Prayer	254
9. What Your Personal Life and Behavior as a Minister Must Be	269
A. You and Your Body and Mind	271
B. You and Your Conduct	278
C. You and Your Financial Support	294
10. What Your Relationship With Others Must Be	299
A. You and Your Family	301
B. You and Other Ministries	313
C. You and Those Who Oppose, Criticize, and Persecute You	325
D. You and Other Believers	340
E. You and Unbelievers	340
11. What Your Attitude Toward Suffering Must Be	341
12. What Your Death and Reward as a Minister Will Be	363